

2025 Women, Influence and Power in Law Awards: LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT WINNER

OCTOBER 8, 2025

- Briefly tell us about your career so far.

I have spent my entire career as a trial lawyer. Over the past 32 years, I have represented everyone from individuals to Fortune 10 companies to Grammy-award winning artists. My experience spans personal injury litigation, bet-the-company commercial litigation, patent litigation, trademark litigation, class actions, and mass torts.

- What major changes do you see shaping the future of the legal profession, and how should lawyers prepare for them?

Technology immediately comes to mind, and lawyers should be prepared to take full advantage of artificial intelligence tools to streamline and better their practices. But there is no “AI” on a jury panel. A lawyer’s ability to distinguish himself/herself in the coming years will still be based on being relatable to clients, opposing counsel, and the public.

- What is the best leadership advice you’ve given or received, and why do you think it was effective?

What would you attempt to do if you knew you could not fail?” It was effective because it freed me from my own preconceived notions of what my practice would be and allowed me to have a career that has exceeded my wildest expectations.
